

NAME: _____ SCORE: _____

Summer Project Rubric

You Know Your Stuff!

You're on the Right Track!

You're Missing Something!

You Can Do Better!

Category	4	3	2	1
Required Elements	Your final project includes all 6 required activities and additional information.	Your final project includes all 6 required activities .	Your final project includes 4-5 of the required activities.	Your final project includes 3 or less of the required activities.
Knowledge Demonstrated	Your information is accurate and demonstrates understanding. You connected the book to all activities in the packet and wrote in your own words.	Your information is accurate and demonstrates some understanding . You connected the book to some activities in the packet and wrote MOSTLY in your own words.	Your information could be more accurate . You misunderstood some things you read. You connected the book to a few activities in the packet. There are some sentences written in your own words, but the majority is copied from a source.	Your information is inaccurate and demonstrates little or no understanding . You made no connections to the activities in the packet. Your entire project is copied from a source.
Visuals	Your entire final project is neat and well organized . It is typed or written neatly . Photos & captions are used to make your work look more interesting.	Most of your final project is neat and well organized . It is typed or handwritten. Some photos and captions are used to make your work look more interesting.	Your final project is disorganized or sloppy . Few photos and captions are included.	Your final project lacks organization and effort . No photos or captions are included.
Mechanics	Your grammar, spelling, capitalization and punctuation are correct throughout the project .	Your project has 2-3 errors in grammar, spelling, capitalization and punctuation	Your project has 4-5 errors in grammar, spelling, capitalization and punctuation	Your project has more than 5 errors in grammar, spelling, capitalization and punctuation

Comments: